Level: Phrased Intermediate

Choreographer: Roosamekto Mamek (INA) - July 2016

Music: Azonto - Fuse ODG

Intro: 16 counts

SEQUENCE: A, B, B, A, A, A, B, A, B, A, B.

Choreographer's Note: The dance involves a set of hand movements that either mimic everyday activities or are meant to amuse an audience. It begun with one or two step movements but has been advanced to more complex and almost acrobatic movements. Just like most African dances, Azonto involves knee bending and hip movements. The dance has effectively evolved from a few basic moves to miming actions such as ironing of clothes, washing, driving, boxing, praying, swimming, and others.
